

COOK COUNTY COMMISSION ON SOCIAL INNOVATION

DONNA MILLER

Donna Miller is the Cook County Commissioner of the 6th District. She previously worked as a healthcare consultant for leading pharmaceutical and biotech companies. Commissioner Miller has extensive experience in sales, training, and development, as well as collaborating with healthcare firms to establish new businesses. Commissioner Miller has received numerous awards and recognition for her professional achievements. She has been involved in community, civic, and political activities throughout her life. She was a Red Cross Volunteer and worked in communities disproportionately affected by HIV/AIDS and Sickle Cell. She is a member of the League of Women Voters and has served as Board Chair for Planned Parenthood of Illinois, Board Chair of Planned Parenthood of Illinois Action Committee, Vice-President of Illinois Democratic Women, and former President of Democratic Women of the South Suburbs. Commissioner Miller recently received a 2022 National Association of Counties Award for her CPR and AED Awareness and Training campaign, promoting heart health. She was recognized by the Global Eye Magazine and Indian American Coalition as one of the top Chicagoland Women of Excellence 2022